

Happy 50th Birthday Katie

Now, Katie, I know it's a special day as you celebrate your 50th Birthday And you share your birthday with someone, that's clear As Will I am is your twin, I hear you were the first to do anything, that's true smoking, drinking, dying your hair navy too and the first to lose their virginity, this was also you

So i wish you happy birthday, on this special day and i wish you good luck in each and every way your maiden name was Hopkins and this is what they say that it stands to reason they'd call you Hot Pants, anyway you'd frequent the woods and DT's, they say in Shawlands on a Friday and Saturday you'd get Dawn's older sister Paula to get your carry out from the off license, there's no doubt your usual tippie, I've heard tell was Martini Bianco and Merrydown gold as well you certainly loved to party I bet that rings a bell you had a basement flat in your parents, it's true it was regularly used for parties by you and before you went to Aberdeen university you went on holiday to Kos in Greece too Now you're a social worker and i see you get more excited about cake and tea in the garden centre than partying evidently

Now you're happily married to John, it's true you have a daughter Erica too your teenage boyfriends were Ducky, Fagan and David Russel too
